

High scores awarded to Inniskillin Icewines Wine Enthusiast Magazine September 2005.

94 Inniskillin (Pearl) Vidal Icewine 2003
Brilliant stuff that shows not all hybrids deserve to be scoffed at. Flamboyant aromas of dried pineapple combine with fresh apricots and honey in this rich, unctuous wine that's incredibly sweet yet not cloying, thanks to vibrant acidity. —J.C.

92 Inniskillin Riesling Icewine 2003
Lovely icewine, balancing orange-marmalade sweetness against zesty acidity. Not overly heavy, yet completely mouthfilling, with hints of apple and orange blossoms on the nose. —J.C.

91 Inniskillin Sparkling Icewine 2002
Perfumey aromas of corn, melon and ginger set the stage for one of the more unique wines on the market. It's a true dessert-level ice wine, but one with a creamy mouthfeel, thanks to the multitude of tiny bubbles that seem to aid in balancing the sweetness. —J.C.

91 Inniskillin Oak-aged Vidal Icewine 2003
If you like your wines over-the-top sweet, this one's for you. Sticky and sweet, with powerful flavors of orange marmalade. Impressive...—J.C.
